Container. Monday, November 21, 2005 The CFL all-star game has been coming around for years now, as a means of giving back to the fans and as a way for players to showcase their talents at the highest level of football. This year's edition will take place in Winnipeg on Sunday, January 8. The format is fairly simple: three East Division all-stars vs. three West Division all-stars. This year, the two teams will be named in a draw on Friday, December 2. This is a chance for the players to prove their value at a professional level; and from a fans' perspective, it is a chance to watch some of the best football players on the planet at the same time and in the same city.
