As the Market Diversification Planning (MDP) initiative proceeds, BD is positioning the company for future growth by fortifying the long-standing business focus on food, beverages, healthcare, and consumer care products. First launched in 2002, MDP is an effort to set long-term, strategic direction for the company, and has been expanded in scope to embrace both BD, the highest profile company in the Coca-Cola system, and several key business units. First announced in January 2006, MDP was initially to focus on the distribution and marketing of Coca-Cola, Fanta and Sprite, but has been expanded to include a broad portfolio of consumer and other growth-oriented businesses. bd company model beatriche Beatrice Bell was baptized on March 7, 1959 at St. Alphonsus Church, 2925 East Prairie, Chicago, Illinois, as first of four children of John and Catherine (Buckmiller) Bell. At the time of her birth, John was working at the brokerage house of Merrill Lynch as a stock trader, Catherine was an administrative assistant at the Yale Librarian. Beatrice was born with a congenital deformity of the left hand in which the second finger is fused into a large mass of tissue. In 1960, John took a position with Marine Midland Bank in Chicago, and Catherine joined John in banking work. In 1964, she joined Merrill Lynch as an administrative assistant and stock trader.

Catherine gave birth to her first two children: Daniel, born October 1, 1964, and Mary, born March 21, 1966. In 1973, John Bell became the vice president of securities of Cole, Schmidt, and Beckman in Chicago. In 1974, Catherine was promoted to the position of senior vice president in the same division. In 1977, Catherine began working for the family business as a stock trader. In 1978, the Bells moved to Milwaukee, Wisconsin, to assume the position of Senior

Vice President of Cole, Schmidt, and Beckman. John Bell retired as vice president of securities in 1979. bd company beatriche In 1979, the Bells opened their own real estate company, selling real estate in Chicago and the surrounding area. The company would later become the Bell Realty Corporation, located in Schaumburg, Illinois. bd company beatriche By 1980, the company was owned by the Bell family. In 1980, Catherine Bell was appointed director of customer support for Cole, Schmidt, and Beckman. She would
